2022 Legislation to Consider

	Bill ID/Topic	Author	Bill Name	Summary
1	AB 1670	Asm. Isaac Bryan (D)	Criminal Justice: Commission on Alternatives to Incarceration	This bill would create the Commission on Alternatives to Incarceration within the California Health and Human Services Agency to study alternatives to incarceration, reducing recidivism, alternative crisis response models, and the effects of family reunification separation in the jail and state prison system. systems. The bill would require the commission to annually report its findings and make recommendations to the Legislature, Legislature no later than February 1, 2024, as specified.
2	AB 1744	Asm. Marc Levine	Probation and mandatory supervision: flash incarceration	Existing law authorizes probation and mandatory supervision, which in each case is a period of time when a person is released from incarceration and is subject to specified conditions and supervision by county probation authorities. Existing law, until January 1, 2023, allows a court to authorize the use of flash incarceration, as defined, to detain a person in county jail for not more than 10 days for a violation of the conditions of that person’s probation or mandatory supervision, as specified. This bill would extend the authorization to use flash incarceration indefinitely. until January 1, 2028.z
3	AB 1908	Asm. Brian Maienschein [D]	Inmate firefighters	Existing law establishes the California Conservation Camps for the purpose of having incarcerated persons work on projects supervised by the Department of Forestry and Fire Protection. Existing law requires the department to utilize incarcerated persons assigned to conservation camps in performing fire prevention, fire control, and other work of the department. Existing law allows an incarcerated individual, as specified, who has successfully participated in either a California Conservation Camp program or a county program as an incarcerated individual hand crewmember, as determined by specified authorities, and has been released from custody, to file a petition for relief with a court. Existing law allows a court, in its discretion, to permit a defendant to withdraw a plea of guilty or nolo contendere and enter a plea of not guilty or, if convicted after a plea of not guilty, to set aside the guilty verdict. This bill would allow an incarcerated individual, who successfully participated and completed trained in a program, as specified, as an incarcerated individual hand crewmember, be eligible for a firefighter certificate provided by the department. This bill would state the intent as well as findings and declarations of the Legislature relating to incarcerated individuals receiving firefighting certificates.

2022 Legislation to Consider

4	AB 2023	Asm. Steve Bennett [D]	Jails: discharge plans	Existing law authorizes a county sheriff to discharge a person from a county jail at any time on the last day that the person may be confined that the sheriff considers to be in the best interests of that person. Existing law additionally authorizes a sheriff to offer a voluntary program to a person, upon completion of a sentence served or a release ordered by the court to be effected the same day, that would allow the person to stay in jail for up to 16 additional hours or until normal business hours, whichever is shorter, in order to offer the person the ability to be discharged to a treatment center or during daytime hours, as specified. Existing law authorizes the person to revoke consent and be discharged as soon as possible and practicable. Existing law requires a sheriff offering this program to, whenever possible, allow the person to make a telephone call to arrange for transportation or to notify a bail agent, as specified. This bill would require the counties to designate a local advisory group or committee to create a local plan, to be presented to the county board of supervisors for approval, to implement discharge planning for individuals with mental illness who are incarcerated for a period exceeding 30 days. The bill would require a sheriff to make the release standards, release processes, and release schedules of a county jail available to incarcerated persons, as specified. The bill would also grant a person incarcerated in, or recently released from, a county jail up to 3 free telephone calls from a telephone in the county jail to plan for a safe and successful release. By requiring a higher level of service from county sheriffs, this bill would impose a state-mandated local program. This bill contains other related provisions and other existing laws.
5	AB 2250	Asm. Mia Bonta [D]	Prisoners: reentry	Existing law requires the Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation to establish parole reentry and assessment programs for inmates in state prison in order to assess an inmate prior to release and to assist with the inmate's reentry into the community while on parole. Existing law establishes the California Reentry and Enrichment Grant Program to provide grants to community-based programs that provide rehabilitative services to incarcerated individuals. This bill would express the intent of the Legislature to enact legislation pertaining to the successful reentry of formerly incarcerated people into society.
6	AB 2526	Asm. Jim Cooper [D]	Incarcerated persons: health records	This bill would require, when jurisdiction of an inmate is transferred from or between the Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation, the State Department of State Hospitals, and county agencies caring for inmates, those agencies to disclose, by electronic transmission when possible, mental health records, as defined, regarding each transferred inmate who received mental health services while in custody of the transferring facility, as specified. The bill would require mental health records to be disclosed to ensure sufficient mental health history is available for the purpose of satisfying specified requirements relating to parole and to ensure the continuity of mental health treatment of an inmate being transferred between those facilities. By imposing additional duties on local entities, the bill would impose a state-mandated local program.
7	AB 2706	Asm. Marc Levine [D]	Innocence Commission Pilot Programs.	This bill, until January 1, 2026, would require the Attorney General to choose 3 counties in which to establish Innocence Commission Pilot Programs to further the district attorneys' commitment to justice, professional ethics, and integrity, and to effectuate the district attorneys' duty to prevent and rectify the conviction of innocent persons and to address excessive sentences. The bill would require participating district attorneys' offices to establish an Innocence Commission, to review cases submitted to it to determine if a person is factually innocent, has been wrongfully committed, or should receive relief in the interest of justice, as specified. The bill would require participating district attorneys' offices to track specified metrics and to report them to the Attorney General's office quarterly. The bill would require the Attorney General's office to submit annual progress reports to the Legislature by January 31 of each year until 2026.

2022 Legislation to Consider

8	AB 2733	Asm. Steven Choi [R]	Parolee substance use disorder treatment	This bill would require the Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation to conduct parolee referrals for substance use disorder treatment (SUDT) for inmates preparing for reentry and parolees already in the community, who are in need of SUDT, as specified. The bill would require the department to facilitate the enrollment into the Medi-Cal program for all inmates entering parole and who are eligible for, and requesting to enroll in, Medi-Cal. The bill would require the department to refer all parolees with SUDT needs to providers enrolled in Medi-Cal and who are certified to provide Drug Medi-Cal or DMC-ODS services, with Medi-Cal coverage of the services limited to those parolees enrolled in Medi-Cal, as specified.
9	SB 1008	Sen. Josh Becker [D]	Corrections: telecommunications.	This bill would require that a state prison, county jail, city jail, or youth residential placement or detention center provide voice communication services to incarcerated persons free of charge to the person initiating and the person receiving the communication. The bill would authorize these facilities to supplement voice communication with video communication or electronic messaging services, among others. The bill would require these facilities to maintain specified ratios of persons in custody to operable voice communication devices, to maintain a minimum of 2 voice communication devices inside each housing unit, and to provide incarcerated persons with a minimum of 120 minutes of voice communication services per day, to the extent that those services do not to interfere with rehabilitative, educational, and vocational programming, or regular facility operation. The bill would prohibit a county, city, or state agency from receiving revenue for the provision of communication services to persons in its custody.
10	SB 1223	Sen. Josh Becker [D]	Criminal procedure: mental health diversion	Existing law authorizes a court to grant pretrial diversion, for a period no longer than 2 years, to a defendant suffering from a mental disorder, on an accusatory pleading alleging the commission of a misdemeanor or felony offense, in order to allow the defendant to undergo mental health treatment. Existing law conditions eligibility on, among other criteria, a court finding that the defendant suffers from a mental disorder, as specified, and that the defendant's mental disorder played a significant role in the commission of the charged offense. Existing law makes defendants ineligible for the diversion program for certain offenses, including murder, voluntary manslaughter, and rape. This bill would change the eligibility criteria to include a diagnosis of a mental disorder instead of the court finding the defendant suffers from a mental disorder and would remove the requirement that the diagnosis be recent. The bill would define "qualified mental health expert" for these purposes. The bill would, for a defendant charged with a misdemeanor, limit the period of diversion to one year. The bill would also provide that a decision by a judge to deny diversion would not be binding on any other judge subsequently assigned to the case at a later stage. The bill would make other conforming changes.
11	SB 875	Sen. Nancy Skinner [D]	Crimes: parole	Existing law establishes the procedure by which the Board of Parole Hearings considers an indeterminately sentenced incarcerated person's suitability for parole and generally requires a panel of the board, or the board, sitting en banc, to grant parole on the incarcerated person's minimum eligible parole date unless it determines that the gravity of the current convicted offense or offenses, or the timing and gravity of current or past convicted offense or offenses, is such that consideration of the public safety requires a more lengthy period of incarceration. This bill would prohibit the board from considering discriminatory factors when reaching a finding of unsuitability for parole, including, among other factors, the person's race, ethnicity, national origin, gender, sexual orientation, gender identity, disability, cultural or religious affiliation, and cognitive, speech, or physical impairment.

2022 Legislation to Consider

12	SB 936	Sen. Steve Glazer [D], others	California Conservation Corps: forestry training center: formerly incarcerated individuals: reporting	This bill would require the director, upon appropriation and on or before December 31, 2024, in partnership with the Department of Forestry and Fire Protection and the Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation, to establish a forestry training center in northern California to provide enhanced training, education, work experience, and job readiness for entry-level forestry and vegetation management jobs. The bill would require the training center to include counseling, mentorship, supportive housing, health care, and educational services and authorize the training center to provide training modules on specified activities. The bill would require the director to enroll at the training center formerly incarcerated individuals and to prioritize enrollment for those formerly incarcerated individuals who have either successfully served on a California Conservation Camp program crew and were recommended by the Director of Forestry and Fire Protection and the Secretary of the Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation, as provided, or successfully served on a hand crew at the county level and were recommended for participation by county probation and county fire departments. The bill would provide that successful completion of a training program at the training center constitutes qualifying experience for an entry-level forestry or vegetation management position at a state agency.
13	SB 990	Sen. Benjamin Hueso [D]	Parole: county of release	Existing law generally requires that an inmate released on parole or postrelease community supervision be returned to the county of last legal residence. Existing law authorizes an inmate to be returned to another county or city if it would be in the best interests of the public. Existing law requires the paroling authority, in making that decision, to consider specified factors, including, among others, the need to protect the life or safety of a victim, and the verified existence of a work offer or educational or vocational training program. This bill would, for the factor relating to the verified existence of a work offer or educational or vocational training program, require that the offer or training program be chosen by the inmate. The bill would additionally add as a factor the existence of a housing option in another county, as specified. The bill would require the inmate, absent clear and convincing evidence that the parole transfer would present a threat to public safety, to be released in the county in the location of a post secondary educational or vocational training program of the inmate's choice, or of a work offer, the inmate's family, outpatient treatment, or housing.
14	AB 1816	Coauthors Asm. Carrillo (D), stone (D) etc	Reentry Housing and Workforce Development Program	Existing law establishes the Department of Housing and Community Development in the Business, Consumer Services, and Housing Agency and makes the department responsible for administering various housing programs throughout the state, including, among others, the Multifamily Housing Program, the Housing for a Healthy California Program, and the California Emergency Solutions Grants Program. The bill would require the department to score applicants to the program competitively according to specified criteria. The bill would require recipients of funds from the program to use those funds for, among other things, long-term rental assistance in permanent housing, incentives to landlords, and innovative or evidence-based services to assist participants in accessing permanent supportive housing. The bill would require the department to distribute funds allocated by executing contracts with awarded entities for a term of 5 years, subject to automatic renewal. This bill contains other related provisions and other existing laws.

2022 Legislation to Consider

15	AB 2383	Asm. Reginald Jones-Sawyer [D]	Rental housing unlawful housing practices: applications: criminal records	Existing law, the California Fair Employment and Housing Act, generally prohibits housing discrimination with respect to the personal characteristics of race, color, religion, sex, gender, gender identity, gender expression, sexual orientation, marital status, national origin, ancestry, familial status, source of income, disability, veteran or military status, or genetic information. This bill would make it a discriminatory housing practice for the owner of a rental housing accommodation to inquire about, or require an applicant for a rental housing accommodation to disclose, a criminal record during the initial application assessment phase, as defined, unless otherwise required by state or federal law. After the successful completion of the initial application assessment phase, the bill would permit an owner to request a criminal background check of the applicant and consider an applicant's criminal record in deciding whether to rent or lease to the applicant. This bill contains other related provisions and other existing laws.
16	SB 1106	Sen. Scott Wiener [D]	Criminal resentencing: restitution	Existing law requires a court to order a defendant who is convicted of a crime in this state to pay full restitution to the victim and a separate restitution fine, including to a public agency for the costs of emergency response. Existing law requires a public agency to notify the probation department if a defendant fails to make restitution payment when due, requires the probation department to notify the court, and authorizes the court, after a hearing, to modify the existing order in the interest of justice, as specified. Existing law, in specified cases, including when the defendant has successfully completed probation or successfully participated in the California Conservation Camp program, requires a court to dismiss the accusation, as described, thus releasing the person of any penalties and disabilities of conviction, except as otherwise provided. Existing law authorizes the court, in its discretion and in the interest of justice, in specified cases to provide that relief to a defendant who does not meet the stated requirements. This bill would prohibit a petition for relief, whether statutorily authorized or in the court's discretion, from being denied due to an unfulfilled order of restitution or restitution fine. Existing law prohibits a parolee or inmate from being released on parole to reside in another receiving state if the parolee or inmate is subject to an unsatisfied order for restitution to a victim or a restitution fine with the sending state, except as specified. This bill would remove that prohibition.
17	SB 1331	Sen. Dave Min [D]	Sentencing: members of military: trauma	Existing law requires a court, if it concludes that a defendant convicted of a felony offense is or was a member of the United States military who may be suffering from sexual trauma, traumatic brain injury, post-traumatic stress disorder, substance abuse, or mental health problems as a result of the defendant's military service, to consider that circumstance as a factor in mitigation when imposing a sentence. Existing law allows a defendant who is currently serving a felony sentence and meets these criteria to petition for resentencing if those criteria were not considered at the time of sentencing and the person was sentenced prior to January 1, 2015. This bill would allow a defendant meeting these criteria to petition for recall of sentence and resentencing without regard to whether the defendant was sentenced prior to January 1, 2015. The bill would clarify that this relief is available whether or not there was argument or evidence about the defendant's condition at trial. (Based on text date 2/18/2022)

2022 Legislation to Consider

18	SB 1427	Sen. Rosilicie Ochoa Bogh [R]	Board of State and Community Corrections: Homeless and Mental Health Court and Transitioning Home Grant Programs	Existing law establishes the Board of State and Community Corrections. Existing law charges the board with providing the statewide leadership, coordination, and technical assistance to promote effective state and local efforts and partnerships in California’s adult and juvenile criminal justice system. Under existing law, the board administers several grant programs, including a mentally ill offender crime reduction grant program, a medication-assisted treatment grant program, and a violence intervention and prevention grant program. This bill would establish two new grant programs administered by the board: the Homeless and Mental Health Court Grant Program that would, subject to an appropriation by the Legislature, provide grants to counties for the purpose of establishing or expanding homeless courts and mental health courts, as specified; and the Transitioning Home Grant Program that would, subject to an appropriation by the Legislature, provide grants to county sheriffs and jail administrators to fund programs aimed at reducing homelessness among inmates released from custody, as specified. This bill contains other related provisions and other existing laws.
19	SB 903	Sen. Bob Hertzberg [D]	Prisons: California Rehabilitation Oversight Board	Existing law establishes the California Rehabilitation Oversight Board in the Office of the Inspector General and requires the board to regularly examine the various mental health, substance abuse, educational, and employment programs for incarcerated persons and parolees operated by the Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation. Existing law requires the board to annually report to the Governor and the Legislature, as specified. This bill would additionally require the board to examine the department’s efforts to address the housing needs of incarcerated persons, including those who are identified as having serious mental health needs, who are released to the community as parolees or subject to postrelease community supervision and to include specified data on homelessness in its reports.

AB 1782	Asm. Reginald Jones-Sawyer (D)	Jails: Commissary	Existing law allows the sheriff of each county to operate a store in connection with the county jail to sell confectionary, tobacco, postage and writing materials, and toilet articles and supplies to inmates in the jail. Existing law requires the sheriff to fix the sale prices of articles offered by the store and requires any profit to be deposited in the inmate welfare fund. Existing law also requires that any money, refund, rebate, or commission received from a telephone company or pay telephone provider attributable to the use of pay telephones primarily used by incarcerated persons to be deposited in the inmate welfare fund. The bill would rename the inmate welfare fund the incarcerated peoples' welfare fund and would require money in the fund to be expended solely for the benefit, education, and welfare of incarcerated people.
AB 1908	Asm. Brian Maienschein [D]	Inmate firefighters	Existing law establishes the California Conservation Camps for the purpose of having incarcerated persons work on projects supervised by the Department of Forestry and Fire Protection. Existing law requires the department to utilize incarcerated persons assigned to conservation camps in performing fire prevention, fire control, and other work of the department. Existing law allows an incarcerated individual, as specified, who has successfully participated in either a California Conservation Camp program or a county program as an incarcerated individual hand crewmember, as determined by specified authorities, and has been released from custody, to file a petition for relief with a court. Existing law allows a court, in its discretion, to permit a defendant to withdraw a plea of guilty or nolo contendere and enter a plea of not guilty or, if convicted after a plea of not guilty, to set aside the guilty verdict. This bill would allow an incarcerated individual, who successfully participated and completed trained in a program, as specified, as an incarcerated individual hand crewmember, be eligible for a firefighter certificate provided by the department. This bill would state the intent as well as findings and declarations of the Legislature relating to incarcerated individuals receiving firefighting certificates.

Related Legislation to Consider 2202

AB 2180	Asm. Buffy Wicks [D]	The Children of Incarcerated Parents and Caregivers Task Force.	This bill would establish the Task Force on the Children of Incarcerated Parents and Caregivers. The bill would require the task force to be convened as a committee of the California Child Welfare Council and would require the council to select no more than 20 people representing various groups as members of the task force. The bill would require the task force to submit a report to specified entities, including, among others, the California Child Welfare Council and the Legislature, no later than December 1, 2023, and would require the report to include specified components, including specific policy and fiscal recommendations. The bill would repeal these provisions on January 1, 2025.
