Justice Services Service Area

A continuum of services for justice system-involved youth and disconnected TAY that aims to:

- Prevent further youth engagement in the justice system
- Reduce rates of youth recidivism through connection to adult allies, culturally relevant programming, ongoing case management, access to positive skill building activities and whole family engagement

The Justice Services Service Area includes the following initiative and strategies:

- Community Assessment & Referral Center (CARC)
- Cultural Programming
- Detention Based Services
- Girls' and Young Women's Programming
- Multi-Service
- Young Adult Court Case Management
- Intensive Supervision & Clinical Support (ISCS) (funded in partnership with DPH)

Justice Services Overview

Total Funding for Justice Services Area: $15,323,870

Number of Funded Programs in Justice Services Area: 50

Number of Participants in FY21-22: 2,345 (duplicated)

- Juvenile arrests/referrals to JPD declined each year from 2018 to 2021.*
- In 2021, 292 youth encountered the justice systems and 52% (152) participated in JJCPA supported programs.*
- Among youth who were detained in 2021, 56% participated in JJCPA supported programs.*

**SOURCE: 2022 JJCPA-YOBG Expenditure and Data Report, submitted to BSCC 9/30/2022. JJCPA-funded programs constitute a subset of all DCYF Justice Services grants. As updated analyses of participation in all Justice Service programs is pending with AIR, reporting on JJCPA-funded program participation may loosely estimate the proportions of justice-involved youth who engage in DCYF's Justice Services.*
