Reunited and it feels so good

Hi Damia! Thanks for your response to my list cat posting on PawBoost. We found Catherine last night using your tips. We had to go into multiple neighbors backyards and had to go to the same yard twice! The second time was at night and we found after after the third time looking at the same crawl space under a house under construction so I'm so glad for your tips

Omg
yayayayayYYYYYYY!!!!
!!!!

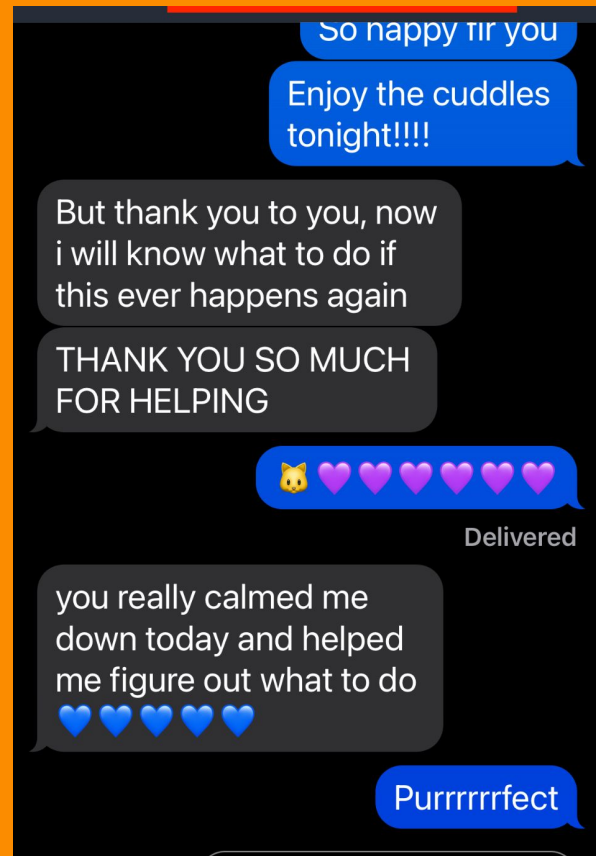

Kindly recommend a tracker (not that he will get out again!)... I'll copy paste what I send to folks

...

Thank you so much! He came back at 4am! Thank you for all the advice!!! I stayed up until 3 and then got up again at 4 just in case, and there he was! My husband and I put out his blankets, litter box, and food, so I think all the scents helped.

And yes! We plan to get a tracking collar—he's too much of a Houdini to go
