OEWD'S VISION

The Office of Economic and Workforce Development strives to create a thriving and resilient economy, where barriers to economic and workforce opportunities are removed, and prosperity is shared equitably by all.

WORKFORCE DEVELOPMENT MISSION

The Workforce Development Division of the Office of Economic & Workforce Development (OEWD) coordinates the San Francisco Workforce Development System.

We are a network of public, private, and nonprofit service providers that serve San Francisco job seekers and employers.

JOB CENTERS

We work closely with community workforce organizations to find local candidates that match the skills, experience, and qualifications that employers are seeking

Job Centers are located across the City in the following 10 neighborhoods:

- Bayview
- Chinatown
- Excelsior
- Mission
- Oceanview, Merced Heights & Ingleside
- Richmond
- Sunset
- Tenderloin
- Visitacion Valley
- Western Addition

They provide support with:

- No-cost recruitment
- Pre-screening of candidates
- Hiring events
- Marketing jobs

TRAINING PROGRAMS

We have four sector training programs for job seekers that prepare our diverse local talent for in-demand job opportunities

OEWD Workforce Training Programs Focus on:

1. Technology: provides a wide range of technical and non-technical skills from IT Support to coding for both tech and digital media industries
2. Hospitality: provides a diverse set of training for roles in cooking, bartending, and janitorial & guest services
3. Healthcare: provides clinical and non-clinical training to for a multitude of healthcare roles from homecare workers to certified nursing assistants (CNA)
4. Construction: provides pre-apprenticeship training for careers in the building and construction trades and provides construction administration training

WORKFORCE EMPLOYER CONCIERGE

We provide employers with a no-cost, high-level, customized service to assist them with their hiring needs through our local workforce agency partner network.

EMPLOYER TESTIMONIALS

“Finding the right entry-level candidate for Bandago seemed an impossible task. The ‘normal’ job sites produced underwhelming results for our growing company. As soon as we turned to The Office of Economic and Workforce Development, our inbox was filled with candidates ready to jump in and become part of our team.”

Ashley Myers
Operations Manager, Bandago

“We have hired 24 hourly employees so far, and 17 of them came from The Office of Economic and Workforce Development! I can’t thank OEWD enough for all of the help.”

Kristy Barrera
Human Resources, Hyatt Place SF

“There is incredible talent in workforce services’ local job training programs. Local talent supports our company’s growth, and hiring local diverse talent connects us better to the community in which we operate.”

Jeanine Cotter
Founder, Luminalt
Chair, Workforce Investment
San Francisco Board

Hundreds of job seekers met with over 85 local employers at a job fair organized by OEWD for the growing hospitality industry.
