Dear San Francisco Arts Commission,

I am writing in support of the exterior mural dedication in honor of Pastor Cecil Williams and Janice Miritikani on the parking lot side of Glide Memorial Church. Pastor William is celebrating his 94th Birthday in September as well as being honored for 60 years of dedicated service to the San Francisco Tenderloin and beyond.

I can not think of a more fitting or deserving mural dedication, I am in full support of this mural homage and look forward to the mural unveiling ceremony.

Thank you for supporting this mural project through Mission Art 415.

Sincerely,

Ed Valeau

RE: Support of mural on 334 Ellis Street

Dear San Francisco Arts Commission,

This letter expresses our support for the creation of a mural on the west facing wall of 334 Ellis Street honoring Glide Memorial Church's Rev. Cecil Williams and poet and activist, Janice Mirikitani for their decades long service to the Tenderloin community. The stunning mural will shine a spotlight on the 60 years of leading the way in fighting against systemic injustices, creating pathways out of poverty and crisis, and transforming lives in our urban center. Glide has been a stalwart community partner with USF's students, faculty and the McCarthy Center in collaborating on addressing community identified needs. Additionally, Ms. Mirikitani has served as a USF diversity scholar visiting professor, a position that brings firsthand knowledge of a part of America's multicultural history.

We affirm our support for Mission Art 415 and its undertaking of this project which honors two iconic San Francisco leaders who inspire all of us towards lives of public service for the common good.

Sincerely,

LLombre

Dear San Francisco Arts Commission,

The San Francisco Chapter of the Japanese American Citizens League strongly supports MissionArt415 and the proposal to create a mural which honors the lives and work of Pastor Cecil Williams and Janice Mirikitani. Their humanity and their legacy are without doubt worthy of a public dedication which will powerfully remind us that human lives matter.

Also, Janice Mirikitani has been selected as one of the ten San Francisco Japantown notables to be painted on the proposed SF Japantown History Mural on Geary Boulevard. The SFJACL honors the contributions that Janice had made towards the preservation of a community's history and culture. She has inspired us all to be activists and to better understand our commonalities. Their image on Glide Memorial is timely and a moving tribute to their dedication to all communities.

Pastor Cecil Williams and Janice Mirikitani are reminders of the best that we can do.

Sincerely,

Judy Hamaguchi
SFJACL President
