Artist Biography (Please provide a short biography about yourself and your craft):	THE ART IS ALREADY THERE, EVERYWHERE YOU LOOK, I JUST CAPTURE THE ART OF EARTH My name is Logan Fullington. I am an artist from Durango, Colorado; currently focused on photographing Earth Art and documenting my travel adventures on my quest to learn the ways of nature My passion for film runs deep Here are some examples of my favorite projects ; a skate documentary called "Free, Will"; a documentary about the new method of healing "Messages of the Cold" for Rocky Mountain PBS' program Colorado Voices. Working with my drone for multiple clients, I am able to bring an arial perspective. In documenting my travels, I have captured various locations such as the West coast USA along with my solo adventure to Chile. My true passion is to connect with new humans and to protect the beautiful life on this Planet My goal is to create documentaries of Earth to show how inspiring it can be and to use film to help connect humans with the power of Nature Thank you for visiting my DIGITAL GALLERY and if you want to connect or work together, send me a message below!
