"Radical Healing – An Impacted Woman's Journey,"

Please join us for this interactive workshop, as we define what it means to heal from the past trauma of incarceration and other life events, explore the origins of trauma and identify obstacles along our way that prevent us from healing. Come listen to a diverse panel of women share their testimonies and witness the power of movement through a dance therapy performance and a short video documentary. Radical healing is about breaking free from the chains of low self-esteem, shame and guilt and learning to embrace self-love. Don't miss this transformative event that will leave you inspired and ready to embark on your own radical healing journey.
