REDISTRICTING BY DO-GOODERS

Sara Sadhwani, PhD

Assistant Professor of Politics | Pomona College Commissioner | CA Redistricting Commission

SUCCESSES OF THE CA CRC 2022

- Collected nearly 40,000 pieces of community input
- Worked on consensus model to navigate conflicting testimony and priorities, including rotating chairs and multiple subcommittees.
- Successfully navigated COVID pandemic constraints
- Expanded opportunities for representation for Latinos >Maintained representational opportunities for Asian Americans and African Americans

>>Expanded opportunities for LGBTQ representation

 Final maps adopted by a unanimous vote – 5 Republicans, 5 Democrats, 4 Independents/NPP

KEY TO INDEPENDENT REDISTRICTING

An inherently democratic process that is inherently political.

>>Democratic == One person, one vote
>>Political == POWER

How to remove or isolate as much of the politics as possible?

KEY TO INDEPENDENT REDISTRICTING

An inherently democratic process that is inherently political.

>> How to remove or isolate as much of the politics as possible?

• Transparency

- Rigorous, fair, and (mostly) transparent selection process that includes selection criteria
- Adherence to ranked redistricting criteria such as those in the Fair Maps Act
- Deep community engagement

Redistricting by Do-Gooders

EFFORT TO REFORM Los Angeles

- From POLITICAL commission to INDEPENDENT
- Charter City Movement for a ballot initiative
- LA Governance Reform Project, other coalitions of advocates
- Recommendations for a commission that is reflective of Los Angeles
 - >>17 members
 - >>Non-partisan
 - >>Broad eligibility to serve
 - >>Alternates

>>Connection to city offices and ethics commission, NOT council

• Additional recommendations for council expansion and ethics reforms to empower ethics commission.
