IMPORTANT DOCUMENTS
Asylum Approval Letter from United States Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) or Court Order from Immigration Court • Your asylum approval letter is a critical immigration document which serves as proof of your new status. • The date granted is stamped within the approval letter. • Your grant letter is necessary in order to obtain services and benefits as a new asylee. • The date granted also begins an important timeline to apply for your spouse or minor-aged children under 21 years of age to join you here in the United States, if they live abroad.
I-94 Along with your asylum approval letter, your I-94 is a second critical immigration document. Your I-94 verifies your Immigration Status. • All new asylees need both the asylum approval letter PLUS an I-94. See example of the document here. • Until you have lawful permanent residency (green card) you will need to show your I-94 to new employers so they can verify your immigration status in the federal system. • Asylees granted by USCIS Asylum Office automatically receive I-94 with grant letter. • Asylees granted in an immigration court by a judge who do not receive an I-94 in the mail within 60 days post-grant should contact USCIS. • Special note, asylees granted in an immigration court by a judge may already possess an I-94 from Customs and Border Patrol (CBP). However, CBP does NOT have your current immigration status as a new asylee in their system. You MUST obtain a new I-94 from United States Citizenship and Immigration	Example I-94 Card
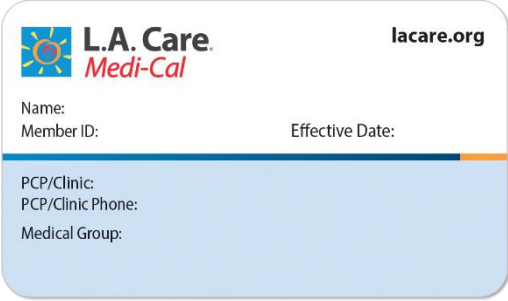

Services (USCIS) which reflects your new status. Call the USCIS Contact Center. • If you need to fix an error on your I-94 issued to you as a new asylee, you must call the USCIS Contact Center.	USCIS Contact Center Open 8am-8pm M-F Eastern Time 800-375-5283
Employment Authorization Document (EAD) • If you are granted asylum, you are immediately authorized to work. • Some asylees choose to obtain an EAD for convenience or for federal identification purposes, but an EAD is not necessary to work if you are an asylee. • Asylees only apply or renew an EAD if a federal form of photo identification is wanted or needed. • If you currently have an EAD that will expire soon and still need a federal form of identification, the validity of the EAD has been extended 540 days. However, to receive the 540-day extension, you MUST file to renew your EAD by mail or online BEFORE it expires. This will generate a receipt notice with period of renewal.	USCIS EAD application https://www.uscis.gov/i-765 Example Employment Authorization Document (EAD)

USCIS FORMS COMMONLY NEEDED BY ASYLEES IN THE FIRST YEAR
AR-11 Change of Address Form • All non-citizen immigrants MUST report each change of address to USCIS within 10 days of each move. • This is a mandatory requirement until an individual naturalizes as a U.S. citizen.	https://www.uscis.gov/addresschange

• Asylees who originally filed I-589 "Application for Asylum and for Withholding of Removal" online can update USCIS with any change of address online through their USCIS account. • Asylees who originally paper-filed I-589 "Application for Asylum and for Withholding of Removal" must still file the paper AR-11 form and mail in each change of address. • Online filing generates immediate proof that change has been filed.
Family Reunification The date you are granted asylum begins a two-year window of time in which you may file the Refugee/Asylee Relative Petition Form I-730 to bring your spouse and unmarried children under age 21 to the U.S. as derivative asylees.	USCIS sheet "I am a refugee or asylee. How do I help my relative get refugee or asylee status in the United States?" https://www.uscis.gov/sites/default/files/document/guides/D1en.pdf USCIS Form I-730 https://www.uscis.gov/i-730
Refugee Travel Document To travel internationally, USCIS issues Refugee Travel Documents to people with refugee or asylum status and to lawful permanent residents who obtained their Green Cards based on their refugee or asylee status. • You must have a Refugee Travel Document to return to the U.S. if you have refugee or asylee status. • If you do not obtain a Refugee Travel Document before you leave the U.S., you may be unable to re-enter or you may be placed in removal proceedings before a judge. • You must check with the consulate of the country you intend to visit to inquire whether a Refugee Travel Document will be accepted for entry. • It may take many months to process an application so exercise caution if buying non-refundable tickets. ADJUSTMENT OF STATUS TO LAWFUL PERMANENT RESIDENT/GREEN CARD
There are two components to apply for adjustment of status to Lawful Permanent Resident. Form I-693 Report of Immigration Medical Examination and Vaccination Record AND Form I-485 Application to Register Permanent Residence or Adjust Status • You are currently not required to submit both forms together. However, USCIS has issued the following alert:	USCIS sheet "I am a refugee or asylee. How do I become a U.S. permanent resident?" https://www.uscis.gov/sites/default/files/document/guides/D3en.pdf USCIS Form I-693 https://www.uscis.gov/i-693 USCIS Form I-485 https://www.uscis.gov/i-485

- USCIS generally considers a completed I-693 to remain valid for 2 years after the date the civil surgeon signed the I-693. - Filing the I-693 with Form I-485 may eliminate the need for USCIS to issue a Request for Evidence (RFE)to obtain for form I-693, which delays review of your application until you respond to the RFE. For asylees, the I-693 form can only be completed by a USCIS registered medical doctor called a "civil surgeon." Use the USCIS Locator Tool to find a list of civil surgeons in your city or region.
