	YES ON A: HELP SENIORS STRUGGLING ON FIXED INCOMES San Francisco's senior citizens have given their best years to our city, and now, in their golden years, they deserve dignity, security, and affordability in their housing. The challenges are real. Seniors living on fixed incomes are struggling to keep pace with rising housing costs. For many low-income seniors, the situation is dire, with some spending 75% or more of their monthly, fixed income on rent alone. It's a heartbreaking reality, forcing our seniors to make impossible choices between housing, food, and other necessities. Here are some things that a Yes on A vote will provide: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Secure housing for seniors on fixed incomes who are having to choose between paying for housing and purchasing groceries and necessities.</li> <li>• Not increase property tax rates, so that neither homeowners or renters will see an increase in housing costs as a result of the bond.</li> <li>• Implement stringent fiscal controls and robust oversight including annual independent audits and review of all spending to ensure that funds are used as promised.</li> </ul> In short, this proposition will provide affordable housing options for seniors that they desperately need. It's a beacon of hope in a city where housing costs have spiraled out of control. As senior advocacy organizations, we stand united in our support for Proposition A. Senior and Disability Action  Faith in Action  Anni Chung, President &amp; CEO, Self-Help for the Elderly  California Alliance for Retired Americans
