

SFAC Galleries
Fall/Winter Exhibition

Mentorship and Exhibition Fellowship

This new program is designed to support emerging artists in the Bay Area by providing resources and space for meaningful professional development, culminating in an exhibition at the SFAC Main Gallery opening in September 2024.

Shirin Khalatbari

Sun Park

Shirin Makaremi

Shirin Makaremi is an Iranian-American artist and curator based in San Francisco, California. Makaremi is the former Director of Incline Gallery in San Francisco, where she curated and facilitated exhibitions and programs. She enjoys working with emerging local artists, collaborating and supporting them to take a leap with their practice. Makaremi has worked with a number of Bay Area organizations, such as Zamin Project, Southern Exposure, SF Camerawork, and SOMArts. Makaremi, received her BA from San Francisco State University in Studio Art and Art History.

