INCOME FROM LIQUID ASSETS

Important: You must list every cash account that shows the household member as an account holder. Liquid asset accounts can include, but are not limited to, checking accounts, savings accounts, Certificates of Deposit, Mutual Funds, stocks, bonds, trust funds, limited liability investments, gifts for down payment or other costs, retirement accounts, monthly income from retirement and any other account in which money is saved. You must also list all joint accounts, custodial accounts for minors, and other accounts on which the household member's name appears. Failure to list all accounts will disqualify your household from applying for the property. All money used toward down payment and closing costs is counted as an asset and should be included. However, applicant must include at least the most recent statement from each retirement account as an attachment in your application for verification. Attach additional sheets if necessary.
