Mayor's Office of Housing & Community Development

The mission of the Mayor's Office of Housing and Community Development (MOHCD) is to support San Franciscans with affordable housing opportunities and essential services to build strong communities. The department is organized into four divisions: Housing, Community Development, Homeownership and Below Market Rate (HBMR) programs, and Fiscal/Administration.

The Community Development division works with a broad network of community-based partners to create an inclusive and equitable City where all residents can thrive. Specifically, MOHCD's Community Development division:

- Manages local General Fund money to support programs that meet the essential needs of the city's most vulnerable residents.
- Administers major federal grant programs, including the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development's (HUD) Community Development Block Grant (CDBG) program and its Housing Opportunities for Persons with AIDS (HOPWA) program.
- Manages Housing Trust Fund to support housing stability services, as well as the Complete Neighborhoods program that supports community amenities in neighborhoods impacted by increased housing density.

MOHCD's investments support the city's most vulnerable residents by providing much needed services, strengthening civil society, and advancing individual and collective opportunity. It is imperative for the office to be intentional and explicit in meeting its goals of reducing racial disparities in service delivery and increasing social and economic opportunities within San Francisco.

Racial Equity

In partnership with city and community leaders, MOHCD seeks to advance opportunities and improve programmatic outcomes for low-income and/or Black, Indigenous, and People of Color. As such, MOHCD assesses programs, contracts, and procurements to ensure they advance the city's racial equity goals and will be working closely with organizations to monitor the impact of investments. Capacity building will be provided, as well as clear information and the creation of channels to give and receive feedback to ensure that all parties are aligned in the expectation to create an inclusive and equitable City where all residents can thrive. MOHCD also affirms its commitment to centering its work on culturally responsive solutions developed by the people most impacted by social inequities.

Impact of Covid-19

MOHCD understands that COVID-19 has disproportionately impacted low-income and/or Black, Indigenous, and People of Color. As such, MOHCD has deepened its partnership with organizations that have responded to the emerging needs of vulnerable residents throughout the COVID-19 response and recovery. MOHCD adjusted its funding portfolios to better align with the goals of the City's Economic Recovery Task Force while remaining grounded in the MOHCD HUD Consolidated plan.

1. Housing Stabilization – Addressing immediate housing needs.
2. Anti-Displacement - Protecting the stability of communities and families through access to legal services and supporting community-based networks to strengthen and increase service connections.
3. Economic Self-Sufficiency – Reaching the most vulnerable residents and providing opportunities for economic advancement.

MOHCD's Guiding Document

MOHCD's work is guided by a primary planning document called the Consolidated Plan. The Consolidated Plan serves as the application for several federal funding sources and provides additional context for MOHCD's work. The Consolidated Plan can be found on our website www.sfmohcd.org.

BACKGROUND ON CAPACITY BUILDING

Capacity building is an investment in the effectiveness and future sustainability of a nonprofit organization. MOHCD recognizes the gaps in funding and resources that exist for many nonprofits, including its own grantees. MOHCD also recognizes how practices within our sector perpetuate a cycle in which funders continually under resource the nonprofits they support.

MOHCD's proposed capacity building framework has been informed by research and best practices and community voices, including the Learning for Action (LFA) Capacity Building Landscape Study, the Human Right Commission Reallocation of SFPD Report, One SF's Economic Recovery Task Force Report, and a cohort of MOCHD funded nonprofit organizations targeting services to underserved African-Americans. LFA's report describes the seven nonprofit capacities that any nonprofit needs in varying degrees:

- Vision and impact model - A clear and detailed description of the impact the organization is trying to create, mapped to the set of organizational activities that help produce that impact (e.g., Theory of Change)
- Governance and leadership - A board and staff leadership that have the skills needed to work effectively together in service of the organization's mission
- Program delivery - Staff, technology, facilities, and other capabilities needed to deliver programs effectively and in fidelity to the impact model
- Resource generation - A strong funding model to guide resource generation, and the capabilities to secure resources over time
- Internal operations and management - Includes technical functions such as IT, financial management, and internal/external communications, plus human resources management and strategic planning
- Evaluation and learning - Tools, processes, infrastructure, and culture that support continuous program and organizational improvement
- Strategic relationships - The ability to nurture and maintain the external relationships necessary for success, including program delivery partners, funding relationships, and political support

LFA also places capacity building interventions into two categories Focused vs. Developmental Capacity Building:

- A focused intervention addresses a problem or pain point, which does not require a holistic understanding of the organization's performance across the seven capacities.
- A developmental intervention seeks to a) understand a potential problem in the context of the organization's performance in relation to the full range of capacities, and tailor the intervention accordingly, b) strengthen the organization as a whole (across the seven capacities) in the context of its stage of development, or c) both.

The HRC report specifically included data describing the disparity between the City's African American community and other residents of San Francisco. This was also reflected in disparities between traditionally African American neighborhoods and other neighborhoods in the City.

- African Americans have the lowest median household income in San Francisco. In 2019, the average income for a Black household was $31,000, as compared with $116,000 for white families.
- Black/African Americans have the highest mortality rate for nine of the top ten causes of death in San Francisco.
- African Americans have the highest rates of hospitalizations and emergency room visits due to asthma. Asthma is also exacerbated by stress, which is again worse for poor families, and for those experiencing racism.
- High-income neighborhoods reported zero infant deaths in 10 years, while Bayview/Hunters Point, including lower income zip code 94124, reported over 20 infant deaths during this same timeframe.
- Black/African American individuals comprise 37% of the City's unhoused population, despite making up only 6% of the City's population.

MOHCD has also engaged in intentional conversations with grantees about their strengths and capacity building needs, as well as strategies that would be effective in advancing their organizations' mission, goals, and operations. The following were identified as five high priority areas that will serve as a guide to their success.

- Fund development/multi-year funding

- Bookkeeping and administrative staffing
- Board development and strategic planning
- Technology and skills upgrades
- Marketing and communications

MOHCD is appreciative of all these sources in the development of this RFP. Reviewing the disparities demonstrated through data, MOHCD seeks to increase capacity building among community-based organizations that target the African American community in their outreach and program design.

It is our desire to make funding available that will meet the needs of our current grantees through the following described strategies.

DETAILED DESCRIPTIONS OF FUNDING OPPORTUNITY

Through this RFP process, MOHCD is seeking proposals for the following funding opportunity. The final terms and conditions of each awarded grant are subject to negotiation. Please note your proposal might be considered for future funding opportunities without submission of an additional response. In such a case, the funds awarded will not exceed $500,000 or 150% of the original grant amount authorized through this RFP, whichever is greater. At this time, no additional funds are available.

Community Stabilization Capacity Building Recommended Grant Request Amount - $25,000 – $75,000 per grantee

MOHCD seeks to ensure that all San Francisco residents have housing and community stability. MOHCD issued multiple awards through an RFP process in the Spring of 2020 for community stabilization capacity building. It was grounded in a recognition of the oppressive history of racial injustice, especially in housing and community services and the structural inequities that remain today. It is a multi-year commitment of $1 Million in grants to nonprofit organizations that target underserved African American residents and residents of historically Black neighborhoods. MOHCD's community engagement efforts resulted in the commitment to award additional capacity building funding for these organizations. These organizations should also be based in within historically African American neighborhoods as described below. This RFP will continue such efforts and focus on a segment of the San Francisco population that continues to have a high proportion of housing and community instability (as described above).

This RFP is seeking grant proposals to San Francisco-based, nonprofit organizations have a successful history of targeting and reaching underserved African American residents and residents of historically Black neighborhoods. Existing MOHCD capacity building grantees may apply for an additional year's funding if they satisfy the criteria below. This RFP will support proposals that either propose new capacity building efforts or are seeking to implement a current strategic plan. Applicants seeking funding to implement a current strategic plan should include a copy of that plan and the background narrative that supports the organization's focused capacity building project. Agencies who were funded previously will be considered for additional funding if they apply and meet the following criteria:

1. The project has made measurable progress toward its deliverables and outcomes. Please include a summary of this progress in the Impact section of the proposal narrative.
2. The applicant can clearly demonstrate how additional funding will build upon the work completed in the previous years.

Proposals should be one-year capacity building projects in the following areas:

1. Board Development –Strong board leadership is essential to the success of a nonprofit. It is important that Board members understand their duties and utilize effective good governance practices.
2. Leadership Development- To support organizations, MOHCD is supporting the development of new and existing executive leadership and board members to work effectively together in service of the organization's mission. Nonprofits depend on strong leaders to guide, inspire, and engage. To be successful, leaders must identify impending challenges and the leadership skills needed to overcome them — and invest in training employees who provide the services to the community.
3. Financial Systems and Management- Sound financial systems, practices, and oversight are necessary for an organization to receive diverse funding investments, grow, and adapt. Assessments, tools, and technology all support the development of the financial capacity of an organization.
4. Program Development & Operational Infrastructure- Establishing cross-departmental teams, programmatic planning, evaluation, and accountability as well as goal setting and understanding impact all support the programmatic operations of an organization. Similarly, the operational infrastructure of an organization benefits from capacity building efforts, such as human resources, data management, and asset management.

Applicant Qualifications: Applicants and any collaborating organizations must have the ability to provide culturally competent/humble services in appropriate languages for the communities being served, and history of effectively serving low and very low-income individuals. In addition, the following requirements apply:

1. The proposed service site should be currently located within a historically African American San Francisco neighborhood, such as Bayview Hunters Point, the Fillmore, Oceanview, Merced Heights, Ingleside (OMI), Potrero Hill, Visitacion Valley, or Western Addition, and/or your service primarily serves residents from those neighborhoods.

SCORING

Grant proposals that meet our Eligibility Requirements (see Page 8) will be scored, ranked, and receive a funding recommendation based on the ranking. Proposals that do not satisfy the Eligibility Criteria will be determined as non-responsive to this RFP and will not be reviewed.

Proposals will be reviewed and will be evaluated by the following criteria:

Proposal Scoring Rubric
Proposal Section	Point Value
1. Experience	20
2. Project Design	20
3. Staffing	10
4. Advancing Racial Equity	15
5. Impact	20
6. Budget Narrative	15
Total	100

MOHCD will average the initial reviewers scores for each proposal to generate its final score. This will ensure all proposals have a final score out of 100 points. Final scores allow MOHCD to develop a final ranking of eligible proposals for the funding opportunity.

MOHCD is scheduled to release intent to award letters in June 2024.

APPEALS PROCESS

Proposals will be determined as non-responsive if they are incomplete, undelivered, or do not meet the Eligibility Requirements (see Page 6). If we determine your proposal to be non-responsive, we will inform you. Applicants may appeal a determination of non-responsiveness to this RFP by submitting notice by email to MOHCD setting forth the grounds for the appeal by no later than five (5) business days after receiving MOHCD's determination.

Organizations will be notified if a proposal was not selected for an award. If there is disagreement with the decision, organizations may file a formal appeal within five (5) business days of the award announcement. MOHCD must receive the appeal on or before the fifth business day.

The appeal must include a written statement of each of the grounds for appeal. An individual authorized to represent the respondent must submit the appeal by email to CommDevRFP@sfgov.org. The appeal must cite all applicable laws, rules, procedures, or provisions that we did not follow faithfully, as documented in this RFP. The appeal must specify facts and evidence enough for us to determine its validity. Disagreements about program quality or value do not constitute grounds for appeal. Failure to object or appeal in the manner and within the times set forth above will constitute a complete and irrevocable waiver of any appeal of MOHCD's decision.

MOHCD will only accept appeals of non-responsiveness or an award decision by email. It is the responsibility of applicants to ensure email delivery prior to the deadline specified.

A panel selected by MOHCD will review all eligible appeals, and the panel decisions will be final. If necessary, we will schedule a meeting with the respondent within ten (10) calendar days of receiving the appeal.
