

San Francisco-Marin Food Bank

Organization Update, September 2024

San Francisco Food Security Task Force

Pressure From All Sides

- Need and demand for our service continues to increase.
- $10M City-Wide Grocery Contract to Fund "Pop-Up Pantries" for pandemic response was cut to $6M in FY24, and was eliminated in FY25

How Many People Projected to Be Impacted

In Process of Phasing out Pop-Up Pantries
by June 30, 2025

In FY 22 - 23 we reduced participants
served through Pantry at Home (grocery deliveries) by 48%

Where to From Here?

Rebuild, Reimagine, Recommit

Rebuild

- Increase our Pantry Network capacity to rebuild from pandemic
- Increase choice for all participants at pantries

Reimagine & Reinvest

- Pilot new approaches to build capacity in Pantry Network
- Co-leadership with partners to build new approaches like Community Markets

Recommit

- To address root cause of hunger through community feedback and listening.

Any Questions

