Project Description and Location

The San Francisco Municipal Transportation Agency (SFMTA) will implement transportation improvements on Page Street in San Francisco between Stanyan Street and Octavia Boulevard, on Haight Street between Laguna Street and Octavia Boulevard, and on Octavia Boulevard at its intersection with Page and Haight streets, collectively known as the Page Neighborway Project, proposed to be renamed Page Slow Street (project). The project will make permanent pedestrian and bicycle improvements that were implemented as a pilot project as well as temporary improvements responding to the local health emergency due to COVID - 19, with some modifications. The project will improve safety and comfort for people walking and bicycling in the project area as described below.

On Page Street between Laguna Street and Octavia Boulevard, a contra-flow eastbound Class IV protected bikeway will be made permanent, and on Page Street between Octavia Boulevard and Webster Street, a westbound Class II bike lane will be made permanent. The project will also implement turn restrictions on Haight Street, a parallel corridor, to improve pedestrian and bicycle safety and reduce the potential for transit delay. Southbound traffic on Octavia Boulevard's frontage road would be prohibited from transitioning into the central (freeway-bound) lane at Haight and Page streets to reinforce the restrictions on eastbound Page Street and Haight Street described above. With these improvements to manage vehicle speeds and volumes conditions for pedestrians and bicyclists will be safer in the project area.

Determination

The City and County of San Francisco decided to carry out or approve the project on January 17, 2023, when the SFMTA Board of Directors adopted the project corridor into the Slow Streets Program and approved. The project was officially approved on February 17, 2023, when no appeal of the statutory exemption was filed during the 30-day appeal period. A copy of the documents may be examined at the Planning Department, 49 South Van Ness Avenue, Suite 1400, San Francisco, CA, 94103 in file no. 2021-006572ENV.
